Title I LEASchool Parent and Family Engagement folicy [Template]

Note: The School Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the ide Rarent and Family Engagement Policy are generally two separate documents; however, for domellocal education agencies (LEAss) d charter schools, the components for the late school policies may be addressed in either one policy (Kschool policy) or two policies (EApolicy and school policy). If your LEAchool plans to combine all the requirements of both the policy into one policy, make sure all required components of the bolicy and school policy are included.

Part I. LEÆxpectations

EachLEAmust establish the EAs expectations for parent and family engagement. [Section 1116(a)(2), ESEA]

The[name of LE] agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

- The LEA will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in all its schools with Title I, Part A programs. These programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parentsof participatingchildren.
- TheLEAwill work with its schools to ensure the required schoolel parent and family engagement policies meet the Title I, Part A requirements, and include, as a component, a schoolparent compact.
- In carrying out the Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the LEWill provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.
- If the LEAplan for Title I, Part A funds is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the LEAvill submit any parent comments with the plan upon request by the New York State Education Department (NYSED).
- TheLEAwill involve the parents of children served in Title I schools in decisions about how the one percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 90 percent of the e percent reserved goes directly to the schools. (Only applicable for diffAsitle I, Part A allocations greater than $500,000.)

• TheLEAswill be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement, and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the finition:

Parent and family engagement means the participation of parents in regularway and ()Tj 0.0051 Tf 60ea18ingf2Dc001nTwni2:atg(0nd)747([()/ini)4 $s64DC0 ₹c/Aftac5.0tc2DT[(p652D32Da)74.2f34v(a)+8.(t)940d2a1137ca 5. The[name of LEA/schoolwill build the schools' and parents' capacity for strong parent and family engagement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children, by;

(List activities.)

d. TheLEA/schoowill take thefollowing actions to ensure that Title I information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon test, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents of adderstand;

(List actions.)

 The[name of LEA/schoolwill coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies under Title I with parent and family engagement strategies under the following programs: [Insert programs, such as: Head Start, Parents as Teachers, Home Instruction Programs for Preochooungsters, and stateperated preschool programs]py;

(List activities.)

 The[name of LEA/schoolwill take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy in improving the quality of its Title I schools. The evaluation will include idenfyi(c)14 (t)-4 (i4-0.007 TwJ 0.002Tc 0 74..002 Tc(alu)-4 (at)b7h6 (e)-a outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement.

(List actions.)

Part IV. Discretionary District/School Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components

TheLEASchool Parent and Family Engagement Policy may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school district, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involveinethe school and school system to support their children's academic achievement, such as the following discretionary activities:

- Involve parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of subtrining.
- Provide necessary literacy training for parents from Title I, Part A funds received, if the school district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for such training.
- Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent and family engagement activities, including transportation and childcare costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and trainingessions.
- Train parents to enhance the involvement of otperrents.
- In order to maximize parent and family engagement and participation in their children's education, arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or condutation conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend such conferencescabol.
- Adopt and implement model approaches to improve parent and faenigagement;
- Establish a districtwide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parent and family engagement in Title I, PaptrAgrams.
- Develop appropriate roles for communibased organizations and businesses in parent involvementactivities.
- Provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities under this section as parents magquest. (List actions.)

Part V. Accessibility

In carrying out the parent and family engagement requirements of this part, articAschools, to the extent practicable, shall provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing informati and school reports required in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand.

(List actions.)

Part VI. Adoption

ThisLE#School Parent and Family Engagement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed on with, parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs, as evidenced by meeting minutes.

This policy was adopted by the ame of LEA/schoolon [date] and will be in effect for the period of [school year] The LEA will distribute this policy to all parents of participating Title I children on or before date].

Signature of District Authorized Representative

Date