ACQUIRING AND USING VOCABULARY

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS:

- ◁ Review student instructions.
- ◁ Familiarize students with their glossary. It is located in Appendix A (Glossary; labeled "Appendix: Glossary" in the student version). Tell students to use the glossary throughout the lesson.
- ◁ Pre-teach the vocabulary selected for extended instruction, provided as word cards in Appendix B (Teacher Resources). This vocabulary is abstract and critical to understanding the text.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS:

Your teacher will pre-teach several key words. Use your glossary for the rest of the lesson to find meanings for words you don't know. Words that are bolded in the text and word banks can be found in the glossary. The glossary is located in the Appendix at the end of the lesson.

WATER NOTE-CATCHER: TRACING AN ARGUMENT

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS:

Review student instructions.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS:

Work with a partner. Use your water note-catcher to write down key, or important, evidence from the video.

- < First, you will write the author's claim, or what they are trying to show.
- < Then, you will write at least three pieces of supporting evidence, or proof, for the author's claim. Write why the evidence is relevant, or important.

Finally, you will write whether you think the evidence is good. Why or why not?

WORD BANK:

affects, companies, global, local, location, misbehave, power, solve, solved, water problems

Claim:

There is no global water crisis. There are many local global

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">◁ The first picture shows global flight routes, or airplane routes all over the world. Something that is global is something that has to do with the whole world and all of the people in the world. ◁ Now look at the second picture. Something that is global can also mean that it is comprehensive, or it includes everyone or everything. This person has drawn a global view of energy use. The drawing includes everything about energy. ◁ Partner talk: When we talk about a global water crisis, or problem, which definition of global do we mean? How about a global water solution? Give a reason for your choice.
